

Animal Clinic, LLC 232 First Street Fort Lupton, CO 80621 303-857-6671

Dr. Ray Sagehorn, Dr. Troy Dowdy, Dr. Victoria J. Cabrera, Dr. Samantha Delbecq, Dr. Sawyer Howell

EQUINE VACCINATION GUIDELINES: FOALS AND YEARLINGS

Vaccine	Foals	Yearlings	Comments
Tetanus Toxoid*	First dose at 5-6 months of age. Booster in 4 weeks	Annual	If foal from unvaccinated dam, give first dose as soon as possible and booster 4 weeks later
Eastern &amp; Western * Encephalomyelitis	First dose at 5-6 months of age. Booster in 4 weeks	Annual	If foal from unvaccinated dam, give first dose at 3-4 months of age and booster 4 weeks later
Rabies*	Give at 7-8 months of age	Annual	State regulations require this vaccine to be given by a licensed veterinarian for the horse to be classified as vaccinated
West Nile Virus*	First dose at 5-6 months of age. Booster in 4 weeks	Annual or biannual	Booster and biannual vaccination only recommended if using inactivated vaccine
Equine Herpes Virus 1 &amp; 4	First dose at 5-6 months of age. Booster in 4 weeks	Biannual in Spring & Fall (every 6 months)	If foal from unvaccinated dam, give first dose at 3-4 months of age and booster 4 weeks later
Equine Influenza Virus	Intranasal vaccine at 9 and 11 months of age	Biannual in Spring & Fall (every 6 months)	If foal from unvaccinated dam, give first dose at 3-4 months of age and booster 4 weeks later
Strangles	*Vaccinate at 5-6 months of age	*Vaccinate every 6-12 months	*Vaccination should be based on risk-assessment and consulted with your veterinarian

*These are considered CORE vaccines by the American Association of Equine Practitioners and should be apart of every horses yearly vaccine rotation.

Regional variations in vaccines recommendations exists. Depending on the region of the country, some vaccines not listed here may be necessary. Also the frequency of these vaccines may vary depending on exposure in certain instances. Consult with your veterinarian regarding these variation potentials.